Retreat in Brittany

23rd - 29th October 2016

Opened to all from 17 years of age

Preached by Fr Thomas Dubois, Nailsea and Portishead

Theme :
Discovering Jesus' gaze of mercy and invitation

The Foyers de Charité are Roman Catholic communities which have been formally recognised by Rome since 1986. Within them, lay men and women, led by a priest, live a common life, sharing all their gifts and resources. Their principal mission is the giving of retreats, to form the whole People of God for evangelisation.

This retreat is a special opportunity to share in the life of the Foyer de Charité of Tressaint, which is easily reached from Britain, Ireland, or Jersey.

The retreat will be preached by a friend of the Foyers, Fr Thomas Dubois, Parish Priest of Nailsea and Portishead, Clifton Diocese. It is called 'fundamental retreat' because it surveys all the fundamental points of our Catholic faith.

The community will all look after the retreatants and pray for them. Their work and life style witness in action to what the retreat is preaching in words.

The retreat will begin on Sunday 23rd October with dinner at 7.30 pm and end on Saturday 29th October at 2 pm. Like all Foyer de Charité retreats, it will be in total silence with three talks each day, and worship with the community. Retreatants are required to stay for the whole retreat.

Blankets and pillows are provided by the Foyer, but retreatants are asked to bring their own sheets. If this is not possible, you can rent sheets on arrival.

Retreatants will enjoy delicious home-cooked meals prepared by members of the Foyer community. If, for medical reasons, you have special dietary requirements, please let us know in advance.

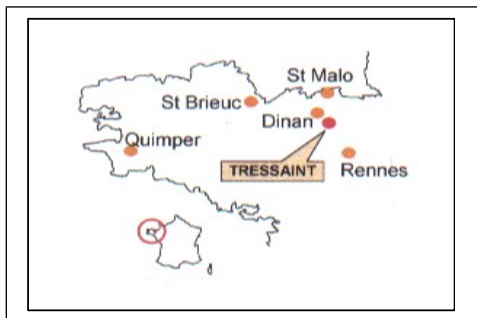

There is no set price for retreats in the Foyer as financial circumstances should not deter anyone from attending. However, as the community depends solely on donations, we let you know that the cost price amounts to 330 € for the retreat. It is left to you to see what you can give to cover your stay.

The easiest way to make donations is in cash (in €), which you can either obtain in advance, or at a cash machine at the airport/station on arrival. Alternatively, the community can give you the details of their bank account so that you can make a direct bank transfer.

Unfortunately, the community is unable to accept donations by credit or debit card.
